

Important Information for Business Owners, Directors, Financial Controllers, Logistic Managers, & Importers

Q Have you ever considered that you might be paying more Customs Duty than is required?

A It is commercially prudent to have an outside expert analyse your customs duty payments

AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS
DUTY REFUND

Many importers see customs duty as being a complex issue and accept it as the unavoidable cost of sourcing products from overseas. However, it is possible to validate these costs like any other, and recover overpaid duty, going back as far as four years.

Unlike other costs, duty rates are not very often scrutinised. If the products you are importing are incorrectly assessed and classified or if tariff concessions have been missed, you are either overpaying duty or risk a customs fine.

Solution:

We at Curlett, Cannon & Galbell Pty Ltd can assist you by conducting a non-intrusive and strictly confidential Customs Duty Refund Audit.

How will you benefit from a Customs Duty Refund Audit?

- You have an excellent risk-free opportunity to make duty savings and potentially gain duty refunds
- It allows you the opportunity to pay the lowest legally available duties in compliance within the Australian Customs laws and regulations into the future
- With our assistance, you can potentially recover considerable sums for reinvestment in your business
- You will have a dedicated team of customs experts working on your behalf
- On completion, you will receive a detailed report on the findings of the audit and its recommendations

Why choose Curlett, Cannon & Galbell?

- We at Curlett, Cannon & Galbell have successfully provided an extensive range of customs advisory services representing retailers, wholesalers and manufactures for over 35 years
- We have experience working with many multi-nationals as well as small and medium enterprises.

Customs Duty Refund Audit THE COMPLETE PROCESS

WHO WE ARE

Curlett, Cannon & Galbell Pty Ltd. is a corporate licensed customs brokerage firm that was established in 1976. As well providing customs clearance, freight forwarding, and associated services, we have assembled a team of experienced and motivated professionals to provide a Customs Duty Refund Auditing service. This service involves auditing past shipping files dating back up to 4 years, to verify that the duty rates charged are the lowest legally payable.

Our company continues to be privately owned with the directors actively involved in the day-to-day business. We are proud of our reputation for integrity and our success rate.

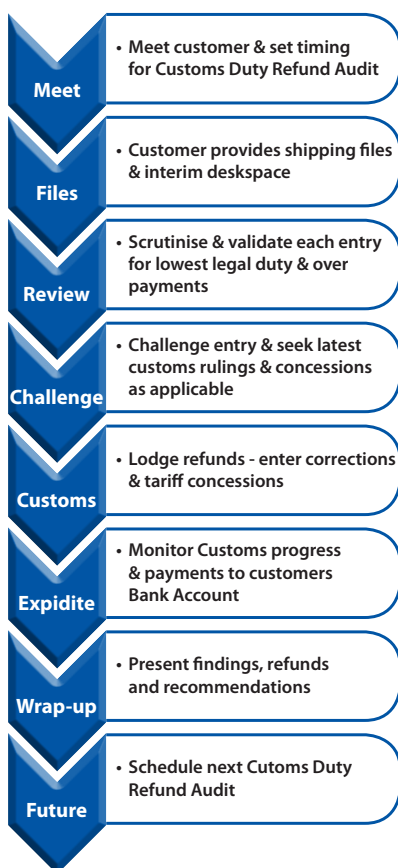

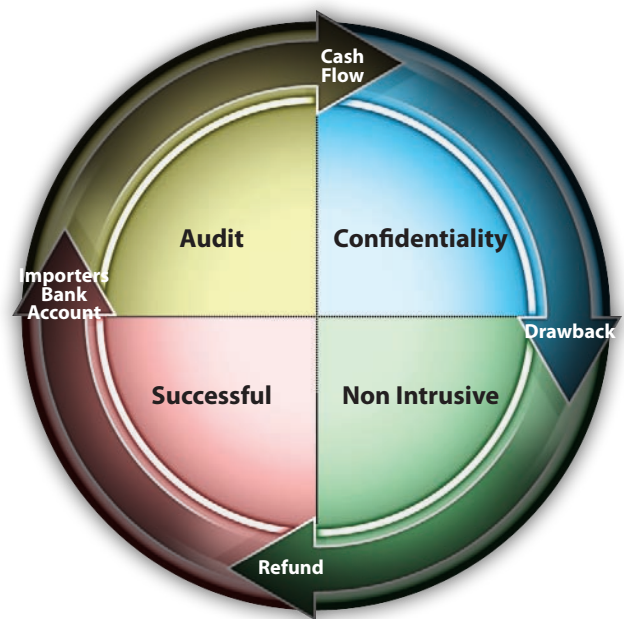

THE PROCESS

Curlett Cannon & Galbell will endeavour to ensure that the lowest legally available import duties are paid within the laws and regulations of the Australian Customs Department.

The audit can be undertaken at your premises and we only require a desk space and the availability of import files. We claim any over-payments that we indentify, so that your company can go forward, knowing that future imports of the same product can be correctly assessed.

Naturally, we carry full Professional Indemnity and are willing to enter into a Deed of Confidentiality should you so desire.

Customs Duty Refund Audit Process

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The service we provide involves a physical examination of your import files, scrutinising the following:

- values/ valuation for customs duty
- commissions
- deductions
- currency/ exchange rates
- classification
- origins/ preferences/ duty rates
- tariff concessions
- inland freight deduction

Customs Duty Refund Audit THE COMPLETE PROCESS

WHAT DOES IT COST?

Our fees are based solely on contingency. Curlett, Cannon & Galbell will only charge if we identify refunds due either to an incorrect duty assessment or for any other unclaimed duties and taxes. No charges are applied to any future imports of the same or similar items.

Australian Customs laws states that we are able reclaim any duty refunds from current date, dating back 4 years.

Option 1:

Curlett Cannon & Galbell can process all refund claims at no additional cost. All refunds will be paid by Australian Customs directly into your nominated bank account.

Payment to Curlett Cannon & Galbell is required within 14 days of receipt of Australian Customs refund monies into your nominated bank account.

Option 2:

Alternatively should you wish to choose to use your own Broker to process refunds, payment to Curlett Cannon & Galbell will be due and payable within 14 days after the completion of the audit.

We are confident that this service is beneficial to you.
