

What are injuries costing your business?

The Injury Management Solution

With over 10 years' experience in supplying labour across all industry sectors, IRP know better than anyone the pain all Australian business are going through at the moment.

Thankfully there is something you can do right now to alleviate some of your fiscal discomfort and IRP might just be the answer for you.

Injury management is one area of business that is often over looked until as they say the blood hits the floor. Any employer that has experienced a workers' compensation claim on their site will tell you that acting after an injury is too late.

But don't worry,

IRP have developed a number of cost saving injury management strategies to assist your bottom line and ensure your workers receive the best quality care following a workplace injury.

A quick 15 minute consultation will be all that's required for IRP to assess how we can help you today.

The cost of poor Injury Management:

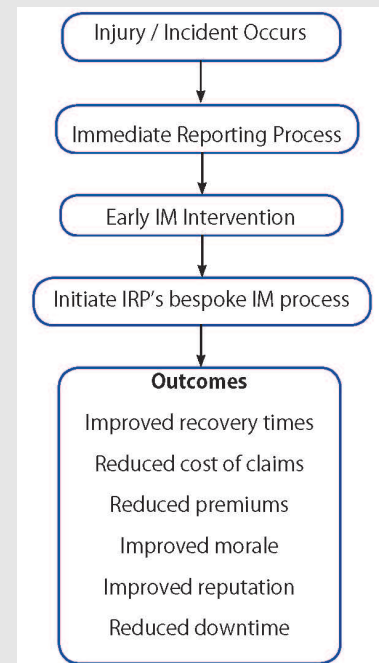

- High workers compensation claims costs
- Increased insurance premiums
- Decreased worker productivity & efficiency
- Risk of legal prosecution and common law claims
- Poor staff morale & retention
- Negative company image
