

Cremations Direct Repatriation Service

Cremations Direct is one of Queensland's leaders in intrastate, interstate and international repatriations; our formally qualified staff ensures the highest level of professional service to our client families.

The cost of repatriation can be expensive; however the cost is sometimes covered by travel insurance. Cremations Direct is committed to containing costs for our client families.

Cremations Direct will liaise with all relevant state and federal government departments as well as any consular representatives on your behalf keeping you informed at every step. Please do not hesitate to contact us 24/7 via email or phone with any questions you have regarding the repatriation process.

Cremations Direct Pre-paid Funeral Plan

Pre-paying your funeral can help provide your family with a sense of security, knowing that the needs of you and your family will be looked after.

After a death in the family, many people understand how much easier it would have been if the arrangements had been spelt out in advance. At Cremations Direct, we can take you through the whole process of arranging your funeral so you don't leave your family with an unexpected expense.

Preplanning also alleviates the worry of your family knowing what you want. It will be already mapped out for them and then all they have to do is let the funeral director follow your instructions to the letter.

Our mission at Cremations Direct is to provide services with dignity, dedication and respect for all families in their time of need. To bring some comfort to an otherwise difficult time by offering each and every family we serve, compassion and choice.

As a family owned and operated funeral business, we are proud of the service quality, experience and personal attention we devote to every family we are honoured to assist.

Our staff have many years experience and undergo continuous training to ensure you receive the highest possible standard of service. We pride ourselves on delivering quality service consistently
