

The Bowery is an online Australian homewares store based in Perth Western Australia. Our passion is to provide quality homewares such as wall art and furnishings.

When it comes to home décor, the big-decision items are often fairly straightforward; the bed, the sofa, and so on. It's the little things – the additional homewares – that reflect your personality and make you truly comfortable in the place that you call home. Whether you want to add a splash of vibrant colour and style to your couch with our range of cushions; or give your rooms an impression of having more space with the stunning range of wall mirrors; or complement and accentuate your favourite floral displays with a ceramic vase; you'll find everything you need at The Bowery to create those special spaces for you and your loved ones.
