

Synaptic Health employs an integrated approach to health care with a significant focus on you. We offer a wide variety of health options for our patients, with a core understanding that everyone is individual and will have different symptoms to similar ailments. With personalised programs and neurotherapy, we provide a range of services for patients seeking assistance for cognitive dysfunction, as well as other conditions, including psychology and counselling, chiropractic and biochemistry services, clinical nutrition and individualised neurotherapy in Perth.

Our team is dedicated to providing a multidisciplinary health clinic which is obsessed with ensuring the very best in personalised health treatments for our patients. With a long standing thought that every person is different and an individual approach should be applied to each patient, Synaptic Health offers the very best in health care!

