WELCOME HOME

They say buying your first home is a big decision – and it is – but it can also be one of life's most rewarding. Placed in the right hands, you'll soon find you have clarity instead of confusion and answers instead of questions. Then before you know it, you'll be unlocking the door to the home of your dreams and all of those wonderful feelings you get as a home owner.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Simple. We are a trusted builder and offer our customers the best value home, level of service and stress-free building experience possible.

At Homebuyers Centre, we believe that an affordable home should also be a quality home; that expectations should be exceeded, not just met; and that the path to your first home should actually be a travelator: straightforward, smooth and always moving you along.

WE MAKE IT HAPPEN

Over the past 25 plus years, Homebuyers Centre has helped tens of thousands of people into their own home. It's a journey we never tire from. In fact, helping our 40,000th homebuyer felt just as good as our first.

We take care of everything from start to finish, including arranging your finance to finding you the perfect home. And because we're a part of the Alcock Family of Companies, which are personally backed by Dale Alcock, we offer peace of mind. In short we do what we say we're going to do, from the get-go.
